

Vespula maculifrons

- The Eastern Yellowjacket commonly found across North America
- A highly social wasp, they live in colonies of hundreds to thousands
- They usually nest underground, but can be a pest if they nest too close to a building.

international
BARCODE OF LIFE

iBOL.org

Collected in: Canada, Ontario, Puslinch

DNA barcode

